Introduction

Soon after establishing the Kodokan Judo, Kano Jigoro Shihan created Kata for serious combative fight consisted of 10 techniques which had the same objectives as Kata from a number of traditional Japanese Jujutsu schools and named it Shobu-no-Kata. Improving the techniques later, he increased the total of techniques to 14 or 15.

After further studying Jujutsu and adding his new ideas Kano Jigoro Shihan submitted the draft of Kata consisted of 20 techniques, 8 Idori and 12 Tachiai for the meeting of Grater Japan Martial Virtue Society to discuss on the establishment of Kata in 1906. As the result of the discussion in the meeting, today’s Kime-no-Kata was established.

Since Kime-no-Kata was created to acquire the most effective techniques for the serous combative fight, the importance of practice in this Kata is to master agile Tai-sabaki movement and the most effective way to control the opponent.
Kime-no-Kata: Names of the techniques

Idori (Set 1)
1. Ryote-dori
2. Tsukkake
3. Suri-age
4. Yoko-uchi
5. Ushiro-dori
6. Tsukkomi
7. Kiri-komi
8. Yoko-tsuki

Tachiai (Set 2)
1. Ryote-dori
2. Sode-tori
3. Tsukkake
4. Tsuki-age
5. Suri-age
6. Yoko-uchi
7. Ke-age
8. Ushiro-dori
9. Tsukkomi
10. Kiri-komi
11. Nuki-gake
12. Kiri-oroshi
Beginning formalities

Tori stands on the left side and Uke on the right side toward Shomen [*Uke holds a sword and a dagger with his right hand (the tip of the sword pointing downward at about 45° ). The sword rests outside, both blade edges of sword and dagger face up, and the base of the dagger’s hilt rests against bottom of the sword’s hilt guard.] with the upright posture in a distance of about 5.4m (about 3 ken) (Photos 1- ①②). Both face Shomen to make standing bows simultaneously (Photos 2, 3) and sit facing each other. Uke puts both sword and dagger onto his right side (the sword to the outside, the dagger to the inside, the base of the dagger’s hilt aligned with the hilt guard of sword, both blade edges facing inward) (Photos 4-①②) and both make seated bows each other (Photo 5).
While Tori stays seated in Seiza, Uke takes up both sword and dagger (blade edges up) with his right hand to rise (Photo 6), moves forward about 1.8m (about 1 ken) behind him to sit in Seiza (Photos 7, 8) and holds both sword and dagger upright in front of his body (both blade edges facing him) (Photos 9, 10). Uke puts his left hand on the left side of the sword, turns both sword and dagger to the left to lay both in front of him (Photos 11, 12, 13) and rises. In this case, Uke put the dagger closer to Uke and the sword further with both of hilts toward Shomen and both of blade edges facing inward (Photos 14-①②).

Idori (Set 1)

1. Ryote-dori

Both Tori and Uke take one step forward from their left feet to stand in Shizen-hontai (Photos 1-①②) and then move forward to a distance of about 90cm (about 3 jaku) to sit in Seiza (Photos 2, 3). Both move close by sliding forward on their knees to a distance of about two fists between the knees of Tori and Uke and sit facing each other (Photos 4, 5) (this distance is called “Hizazume-no-maai”).

Tori and Uke sit in Seiza facing each other in the distance of Hizazume-no-maai while putting both of their hands on their thighs naturally with the fingertips pointing slightly inward.

Keeping seated (without raising his toes) and seizing an opportunity, Uke grasps both of Tori’s wrists in a regular grip (the thumbs inside) with Kiai to attempt to control Tori (Photos 6, 7-①②).
Responding to Uke, Tori breaks Uke’s balance forward by spreading both of his arms outward and pulling both of his hands behind him while letting both of his knees come together (Photos 8-①②) and, with Kiai, kicks Uke’s Suigetsu (stomach) with the ball of his right toe (or with his right kneecap), at the same time raising his hips and both of his toes (Photos 9-①②). Tori immediately puts his right knee down to the previous position, moves his right hand upward to grasp Uke’s left wrist from below, while pulling his left hand to release from Uke’s grasp (Photos 10, 11, 12), turns his body to his left and raises his left knee. While pulling Uke’s left arm forward with his right hand along his body, Tori grasps Uke’s left wrist with his left hand from below (the four fingers outside and the thumb inside) (Photo 13) and holds Uke’s elbow under his right armpit (Photo 14). Tori pulls Uke to break the balance forward (Photo 15) and locks Uke’s left elbow joint with “Udehishigi-waki-gatame” by using his body and both of his hand effectively (Photo 16-①).

When the technique becomes effective Uke signals “Mairi” by tapping Tori’s body or Tatami twice with his right hand.

In Kime-no-Kata, “Mairi” shall be signaled by tapping Tori’s body, Tatami, or clapping both hands depending on the feature of techniques and twice in all cases.
2. Tsukkake

Raising his hips and both of his toes, with Kiai, Uke starts to strike Tori’s Suigetsu (stomach) with his right fist (the back of palm down) (Photo 2).

3. Suri-age

Tori and Uke sit in Seiza facing each other in the distance of Hizazume-no-maai (Photo 1).

Raising his hips and both of his toes and extending the fingers and the thumb of his right hand while holding them together, with Kiai, Uke starts to strike Tori’s forehead with his palm by sliding on it backward/upward and attempts to injure Tori’s neck (Photos 2, 3).

Responding to Uke, Tori raises his hips and both of his toes, dodges Uke’s right wrist upward passing through by turning his body slightly to his right and leaning back his upper body to grasp with his right hand, the thumb below and the palm facing forward. Tori puts his left hand on the base of Uke’s right arm from below with his thumb outside and his palm upward and breaks Uke’s balance forward by using both of his hand effectively (Photo 4). At the same time kicking Uke’s Suigetsu (stomach) with the ball of his right toe (Photo 5), Tori immediately turns his body to his right with his left kneecap as pivot, puts his right knee on Tatami and pulls Uke down to the direct front by twisting Uke strongly with both hands (Photos 6-①②). Without changing his left hand grip, Tori controls Uke’s arm (the base of arm) by pressing down on it from above (Photos 7-①②), turns Uke’s right palm down with his right hand, pushes Uke’s arm forward and moves his body forward on his left and right knees (keeping both of the toes flat) (Photo 8). Tori lowers his hips and locks Uke’s elbow joint with “Udehishigi-hizagatame” by sliding forward his left kneecap into the hollow just above Uke’s right elbow to press and using his right hand effectively (Photos 9-①②).
4. Yoko-uchi

Tori and Uke sit in Seiza facing each other in the distance of Toma (about 1.2 m) (about 1.2m or 4 shaku) (Photo 10).
5. Ushiro-dori

Uke rises in the distance of Toma (about 1.2 m), sits behind Tori in the distance of one step and sliding forward on his knees to the distance of Chikama (about 20cm or 7 sun) (Photo 1).

Uke returns to his previous position (behind Tori) (Photo 11), then sits in Seiza facing Tori (in the distance of Toma (about 1.2 m)) and goes for the dagger.
6. Tsukkomi

Uke inserts the dagger into his jacket while sitting in Seiza to face Tori.
7. Kiri-komi

_Tori_ and _Uke_ sit in _Seiza_ facing each other in a distance of about 45cm (about 1 _shaku 5 sun_).

Responding to _Uke_, _Tori_ raises his left toe, dodges _Uke_’s slash by raising his right knee with his left kneecap as pivot to turn his body to his right and grasps _Uke_’s right wrist (the right hand close to _Uke_’s wrist, left hand further away) while retreating his right foot to turn his body to his right without resisting the slash (Photos 3, 4- ①② ). _Tori_ pulls _Uke_ to break the balance diagonally forward to the right (Photos 5- ①② , 6) and holds _Uke_’s right arm under his left armpit to lock with “_Udehishigi-waki-gatame_” (Photos 7-①②③).

_Uke_ returns to his previous position and sits in _Seiza_ facing _Tori_ (in the distance of _Toma_ (about 1.2 m)). After bearing the short sword in the left side of his hip, _Uke_ returns it into his jacket as a dagger.
8. Yoko-tsuki

Uke rises and moves forward to Tori’s right side (Photo 1) and sits in Seiza alongside of Tori in a distance of about 20cm (about 7 sun) (Photo 2).

Tori and Uke return to their previous positions (Uke in the right side of Tori). Uke rises after inserting the dagger into his jacket, and sits in Seiza facing Tori in the distance of Toma (about 1.2 m). Then, Uke rises to move toward the sword behind him and sits in Seiza to put down the dagger in the initial position.
Tachai (Set 2)

1. Ryote-dori

Tori and Uke move forward each other to stand facing each other in a distance of one step (about 40cm or 1 shaku 3 sun) (Photo 1).

Uke steps forward with his right foot and grasps, with Kiai, both of Tori’s wrists with both of his hands (the thumbs inside) in a regular grip to attempt to control Tori (Photo 2).

3. Tsukkake

Tori and Uke stand facing each other in a distance of about 1.8m (about 1 ken) (Photo 1).

Uke tries to resist by grasping Tori’s right elbow with both of his hands, but he signals “Mairi” when he cannot resist any longer.
4. Tsuki-age

_Tori_ and _Uke_ stand facing each other in a distance of about one step (Photo 1).

_Uke_ takes a small step forward with his right foot and, with _Kiai_, starts to knock up _Tori_’s chin with his right fist (the back of hand forward) from below (Photos 2, 3).

5. Suri-age

6. Yoko-uchi

Uke tries to resist by grasping Tori’s left elbow with both of his hands, but he signals “Mairi” when he cannot resist any longer.
7. Keage

Tori and Uke stand to facing each other in a distance of about one step (Photo 1).

Uke takes a small step forward with his left foot and, with Kiai, kicks up on the vital point of Tori’s groin with the ball of his right foot (Photos 2, 3).

Uke moves through Tori’s right side (Shimoza) and stands in a distance of about 90cm (about 3 jaku) behind Tori (Photo 1). Tori moves forward from his left foot.

When “Ushiro-dori” is finished, Uke once stands facing Tori and goes for the dagger. Uke sits in Seiza, inserts the dagger into his jacket (the blade edge up) and rises to return to the position facing Tori.
9. Tsukkomi

Uke stands facing Tori in a distance of about 90cm (about 3 jaku) (Photo 1).

Uke returns to the position facing Tori while inserting the dagger into his jacket.
10. Kiri-komi

Tori and Uke stand facing each other in a distance of about 90cm (about 3 jaku).

Loosening his short sword slightly from the scabbard to draw out with his right hand, Uke steps forward with his right foot and, with Kiai, slashes straight on Tori’s forehead (Photos 2, 3).

When “Kiri-komi” is finished, Uke once stands facing Tori, puts the short sword into the scabbard in his left hip and returns it into his jacket (Photo 8). Then, Uke moves toward the sword behind him (Photo 9), sits in Seiza to put down the dagger in the initial position (Photos 10, 11) and bears the sword (the blade edge up) in the left side of his hip (Photos 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18). Uke rises and returns to the position facing Tori (Photo 19).
11. Nuki-gake

Tori and Uke stand facing each other in the distance of Toma (about 1.2 m) (Photo 1).

12. Kiri-oroshi

_Tori_ stands in _Shizen-hontai_.

_Uke_ stands facing _Tori_ in a distance of about 2.7m (about 9 _shaku_) bearing the sword (the blade edge up) in the left side of his hip (Photo 1).

While stepping forward with his right foot, _Uke_ quietly draws out the sword and assumes the posture of eye-level position (Photo 2). Then, _Uke_ steps forward slightly from his right foot by _Tsugi-ashi_ to restrain _Tori_.

Ending formalities

Uke returns toward the dagger behind him (Photo 1), sits in Seiza (Photo 2) and takes off the sword to put in the initial position (Photos 3, 4). Then, Uke picks up both of dagger and sword together (both blade edges up) with his right hand (Photos 5, 6), returns to his original position (the place he took one step forward to stand in Shizen-hontai after bows in the beginning). During this sequence, Tori also returns to his original position (the similar place as Uke) (Photo 7).

Both Tori and Uke take one step backward to stand upright (Photo 8), and then make seated bows (Photo 9). After the seated bows, both Tori and Uke stand upright, turn to face Shomen and make standing bows simultaneously (Photo 10).
